Labour: Ham exposes split

CHANCELLOR Philip Hammond's attempts to "distance himself" from Theresa May on Brexit illustrates the weakness of the Prime Minister and the "disarray" that the Government finds itself in, Labour has said.

Shadow chancellor John McDonnell said the "serious split" between the pair over exiting the European Union "undermines" Britain's position in negotiations.

It comes after Mr Hammond said immigration would be managed but not "shut down" after a "jobs first" Brexit that prioritises economic prosperity, in a keynote Mansion House speech which appeared to indicate his favouring of a "softer" withdrawal from the EU.

Queen's silent tribute

THE QUEEN led Royal Ascot racegoers and her family in observing a minute's silence in memory of the victims of the Grenfell Tower fire and London and Manchester terror attacks.

With her head bowed and her hands clasped in front of her, the Queen joined tens of thousands of punters paying their respects.

The announcer of the minute's silence said it was a "mark of respect for the victims and families so tragically affected by recent events in the United Kingdom".

With the Queen stood the Duke of Edinburgh, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge (right), the Prince of Wales and Duchess of Cornwall and other members of the monarchy.

The Queen marked her official birthday on Saturday by issuing a statement acknowledging the "succession of terrible tragedies" in recent weeks and observing a minute's silence before Trooping the Colour ceremony began.

The racecourse is making a donation of £100,000 to the British Red Cross UK Solidarity and London Fire Relief Funds and local charities to support those affected.

DAVIS MAKES A SHARP BREXIT

Off to Spain after EU talks surrender

SETBACK: Brexit Secretary didn't get what he wanted

DAVID Davis is taking his Brexit message across Europe after suffering a setback in Brussels.

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

The Brexit Secretary is meeting members of Spain's government as part of his effort to build bridges across the continent.

Mr Davis's meeting with the administration of prime minister Mariano Rajoy came after UK officials agreed to the Brexit timetable set out by European Commission chief negotiator Michel Barnier.

Talks in Spain are expected to include the thorny issue of Gibraltar after the EU's guidelines for talks suggested the disputed territory's future economic status might be subject to a veto from Madrid.

Upbeat

British sources have insisted the sovereignty of the Rock is not up for discussion as part of the Brexit talks, which began in Brussels on Monday.

Mr Davis had wanted trade talks to take place in parallel with negotiations on the divorce from Brussels – but the UK reluctantly accepted the timetable set out by Mr Barnier.

Mr Davis said he was optimistic about the process and the British appeared upbeat about the prospects of trade talks beginning before the final details of divorce proceedings had been agreed.

Prime Minister Theresa May spoke to Polish counterpart Beata Szydlo about the negotiations, telling her she wanted a "deep and special partnership that supports a strong and prosperous EU".

Mrs May also stressed her commitment to a deal on the rights of EU citizens.

Mr Barnier warned the UK faced "substantial" consequences as a result of Brexit but insisted it was "not about punishment" or revenge.

In a reference to the PM's negotiating mantra, he said: "For both the European Union and the United Kingdom, a fair deal is possible and far better than no deal."

After the first day of the negotiations, which could shape the UK's economic and political future for a generation, it was agreed that working groups of officials would aim to make progress on citizens' rights, the UK's financial settlement, the so-called divorce bill and other issues to do with separation.

Finsbury arrest man 'troubled'

THE family of the man arrested after the Finsbury Park terror attack have said he was "troubled".

Darren Osborne (above), 47, was held after worshippers were targeted by a man driving a van near Finsbury Park Mosque in north London early on Monday.

In a statement, Osborne's family in Cardiff said he'd been "troubled for a long time.

They added: "We are massively shocked. It still hasn't sunk in. We are devastated for the families."

Lib-Dem boss bid Sir Vince 'not too old'

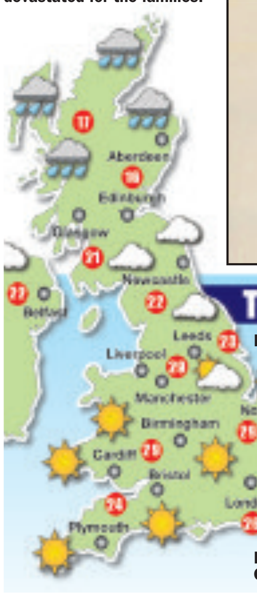
SIR Vince Cable has denied he is too old to be Liberal Democrat leader, after becoming the first contender to throw his hat into the ring to replace Tim Farron, who resigned last week.

Sir Vince (above), 74, returned to the House of Commons as MP for Twickenham in the General Election, having been one of the biggest casualties of the party's collapse in support in 2015.

Former energy secretary Sir Ed Davey and ex-health minister Norman Lamb have also indicated they are considering a bid for the leadership, but hotly-tipped MP Jo Swinson, 37, has ruled herself out.

Sir Vince said he is ready to "work with like-minded people in other parties" to ensure voters get the final say on any Brexit deal, with the option to stay in the EU if the agreement on offer is not good enough.

He described Brexit as an "iceberg" about to hit the UK economy and said the party should "warn of the dangers ahead and the need for a new course".



TODAY'S WEATHER

MURDERED BY KIM JONG UN

OTTO Warmbier, the American college student released by North Korea in a coma last week after more than a year in captivity, died on Monday, his family said.

The 22-year-old "has completed his journey home", the family said in a statement.

"Unfortunately, the awful, torturous mistreatment our son received at the hands of the North Koreans ensured that no other outcome was possible beyond the sad one we experienced today," his parents said.

Doctors had described Otto's condition as a state of "unresponsive wakefulness" and said he suffered a "severe neurological injury" of unknown cause.

President Donald Trump labelled North Korea a "brutal regime" after the death was announced, saying: "Lot of bad things happened but at least we got him home to be with his parents."

Otto was convicted of subversion after he tearfully confessed that he had tried to steal a propaganda banner while visiting with a tour group from China.

He was sentenced to 15 years in prison with hard labour and was held for more than 17 months.

Depp: I spend £1.5m a month!

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

JOHNNY Depp spent £1.5million a month keeping up with his life in the fast lane.

And according to his management team, he admitted his spending needed to be brought under control and that he had to "work his ass off" to get his finances back on track.

Depp, 54, sued his management company TMG, claiming they had cost him tens of millions of dollars, and they retaliated with a suit saying they had repeatedly warned him about his excessive spending.

TMG handed Los Angeles Superior Court a batch of emails and records of phone calls on Monday in an attempt to "overwhelmingly establish" that the Hollywood actor was aware of his dire financial situation.

In an email, Depp told TMG co-owner Joel Mandel he was trying to limit his spending.

"I am doing my very best on holiday spending, but there is only so much I can do, as I need to give my kiddies and family as good a Christmas as possible, obviously within reason," Depp wrote.

He said he could only take private flights, because commercial trips with paparazzi would be a "nightmare of monumental proportions".

Depp said he would be making £59million that year from The Tourist, the fourth Pirates Of The Caribbean film and Dark Shadows.

Depp is seeking damages of more than £20m from the firm he sacked in March last year after 17 years together.

TMG is asking for £433,000 in damages.

The case continues.

RITA'S GOT WOOD

POP scorcher Rita Ora could soon be part of a very famous family after it was revealed she is dating Ronnie Wood's son Tyrone.

Kosovo-born Rita (right) is rumoured to be getting close to 33-year-old Tyrone – who is Ronnie's youngest son with ex-wife Jo – after they met at a swanky London bash last summer.

A source said: "Now they've started seeing each other, things are getting pretty hot and heavy between them."

If things go well, the 26-year-old Hot Right Now singer would not only inherit the Rolling Stones legend as her father-in-law, she could also call Fearne Cotton her sister.

TV and radio presenter Fearne, 35, married Tyrone's older brother Jesse Wood, 40, in 2014.

Now Mourinho accused of tax fraud in Spain

JOSE Mourinho is the latest footballing figure to be accused of tax fraud worth 3.3million euros (£2.9m) by a Spanish state prosecutor.

The Manchester United manager and former Real Madrid coach (above) is alleged to have committed two counts of tax fraud in 2011 and 2012.

Information provided by Spain's Tax Office indicates that Mourinho used shell companies in the Virgin Islands and Ireland to "hide profits made from image rights".

A judge will now decide whether to take the matter to court.

Mourinho, 54, coached Real Madrid from 2010-13.

Only last week, Real Madrid forward Cristiano Ronaldo was accused of defrauding Spain's tax office of 14.7m euros (£12.9m).

And last year, Barcelona forward Lionel Messi was found guilty on three counts of defrauding tax authorities of 4.1m euros (£3.6m).

TWO British tourists tried to claim compensation for food poisoning but their hotel bill revealed they'd been on a NINE-DAY bender.

The unnamed couple, from Liverpool, attempted to sue Jet2holidays and the Gloria Palace Hotel in Gran Canaria over "stomach cramps and severe diarrhoea".

They blamed it on the hotel's buffet but it was found the pair had put away 109 drinks during their holiday in July 2015.

Jet2holidays received a letter claiming damages 15 months after the couple had returned from Gran Canaria.

POSH totty students let their hair down as they stripped off for an end-of-year SKINNY DIP.

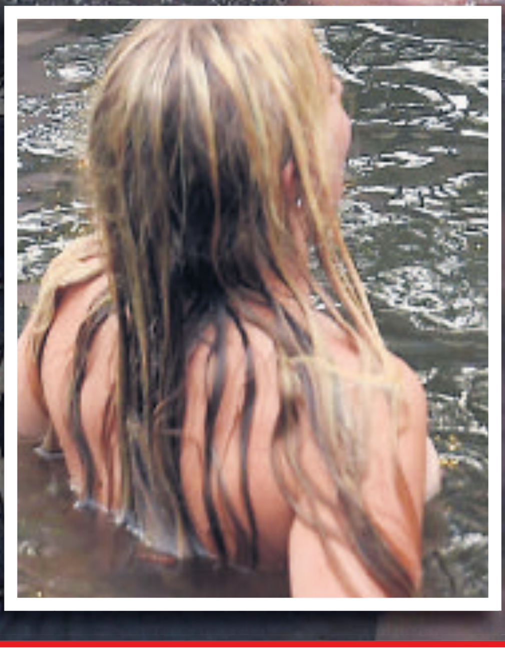
The Cambridge Uni babes marked the end of their academic year with a knees-up at the May Ball – and some took their raucous antics one step further.

Stunning girls stripped down to their knicks and took a break from the lavish bash with a skinny dip in the River Cam.

Trinity College is world-renowned for its infamous celebrations and its annual summer party, with revellers stumbling home at 6am.

One sexy blonde clutched her pert pair as she waded into the cold river wearing a tiny white thong.

Her pal also groped her boobs while paddling in the water and donned a pair of sheer purple panties for her naked swim.



Manford in Tower blaze benefit show

STARS of the West End are to take part in a benefit concert to help those affected by the Grenfell Tower fire.

Comedian Jason Manford (above), Dreamgirls star Tyrone Huntley and Wicked actress Rachel Tucker will be among those performing in Songs And Solidarity, alongside playwright Bonnie Greer and the West End Gospel Choir.

There will also be contributions from Dame Judi Dench, Lin-Manuel Miranda and Harry Potter And The Cursed Child star Noma Dumezweni.

The evening of song, dance and comedy will take place at Trafalgar Studios 1 on Sunday.

All proceeds from the show will go to the Grenfell Tower Fire Fund to help the victims of the blaze.

On Tuesday, June 27, comedians including Michael McIntyre, Jo Brand, Alan Carr and Katherine Ryan will take part in A Night Of Comedy at the Eventim Apollo in London's Hammersmith for the same cause.

Edinburgh-born forward Weir (above) won 61 caps for Scotland and was part of the squad which won the 1999 Five Nations title.

VILE TORTURE GANG CONVICTED

TEETH CHISELLED OUT, FORCED TO EAT HIS OWN TESTICLE AND HAVE SEX WITH A DOG

ABUSERS: Rayworth (above) and Corbett

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A SADISTIC gang have been convicted of a campaign of 'Dark Ages' abuse against a vulnerable father-of-two – including forcing him to eat one of his own TESTICLES, which eventually led to his death.

Jimmy Prout, 45, thought the group were his friends but they turned on him and eventually dumped his lifeless body on wasteland just 100 metres from his home.

Ann Corbett, 26, and Zahid Zaman, 43, were convicted of murder, having previously admitted perverting the course of justice.

Myra Wood, 50, and Kay Rayworth, 56, were cleared of murder but convicted of causing or allowing the death of a vulnerable adult, having also admitted perverting the course of justice.

Sliced

A jury at Newcastle Crown Court heard that the group of five from North Tyneside had a strange relationship which had developed an almost 'cultish dimension'.

They were told that a series of events in late 2015 created tensions that led to a number of serious assaults against Mr Prout, which included him having his teeth knocked out with a hammer and chisel, as well as being forced to have sex with Zaman's dog.

Paul Greaney QC, prosecuting, said: "In effect, over a period of time, Jimmy Prout was not just mistreated, he was tortured.

"In the end, this conduct was to cause the death of Jimmy Prout."

He added: "Awfully, on one occasion, Jimmy Prout's scrotum was sliced open and his testicle was removed. He was then forced to eat it."

Mr Greaney said Mr Prout died on February 9 2016 and his body was dumped on wasteland, where it began to decompose and was partly eaten by animals.

The group then allegedly set about covering their tracks as well as fleecing his bank account, asking people if they had seen Mr Prout as they pretended to look for him.

GANG LEADER: Zahid Zaman

Zaman, who uses a wheelchair and was the leader of the group, was described as vengeful and controlling and was determined to get his own back after he thought Mr Prout had been involved in a theft against him.

One of the officers involved in investigating the murder of Mr Prout said it was "one of the worst of his career".

Det Chief Inspector Andy Fairlamb, from Northumbria Police, said it was hard to imagine that such vile assaults could take place in 2016.

He said: "Jimmy Prout died on February 9, we believe, and was taken to a copse and dumped by these four individuals who have all pleaded guilty to perverting the course of justice.

"Prior to his death, he was subjected to a number of serious assaults of a vile, degrading nature, which resulted in his health, both physical and emotional, deteriorating in the last weeks of his life, and to his death.

"The QC presenting the prosecution described the circumstances under which Jimmy Prout died as from the Dark Ages, which you cannot imagine in 2016.

UNDER ZAMAN'S CONTROL: Wood

"Jimmy had some of his teeth removed with a chisel and a hammer, he had a testicle removed by having his scrotum opened up with a Stanley knife blade, severed, and then he was made to eat it."

The gang are due to be sentenced on June 27.

He said Zahid Zaman co-ordinated what the group did and had exerted a 'controlling influence' over the three women who made up the gang.

"Before the end of 2015, Jimmy would have been a normal guy going about his normal day-to-day business but the evidence from CCTV, mostly captured from Zaman's house, is that Jimmy's health deteriorated greatly," said Mr Fairlamb.

"You can see the change in him."

Apprentice babe Claudia's sea romp nip slip

REALITY TV star Claudia Jordan's swimsuit failed to protect her modesty as it went see-through and flashed her nipple.

The 44-year-old Celebrity Apprentice and Real Housewives of Atlanta babe strutted her stuff on Miami Beach over the weekend.

However, it was her daring choice of swimwear which turned heads as she squeezed her big boobs into a low cut tiny one piece.

Her nude swimsuit went completely see-through when she plunged into the sea and as she got out of the water, her right nipple made an escape.

ROCK offspring Kelly Osbourne said she's wary about BONKING blokes who are more interested in her famous father.

The 32-year-old reality star revealed she has basically imposed a sex ban on herself in a bid to avoid fame-hungry fellas.

Daughter of Ozzy and Sharon, Kelly has previously dated a string of musicians and models, including Bert McCracken, Quincy Combs and Matthew Mosshart, but hasn't found Mr Right yet.

She said: "I have an inability to allow myself to fall in love.

"When you're someone who people try to sleep with to say they had sex with Ozzy Osbourne's daughter, it's like I put a chastity belt on myself."

Kelly also recently revealed that she'd be open to finding Mrs Right after confessing she would be willing to give things a go with another woman.

She said: "I'm open to loving anybody. It's about the person. I don't think it's about sexuality at all.

"But it's not like I'm trying to be forward-thinking or progressive – it's just that sexuality is a word I try not to even define the way the world defines it.

"It's the person who you are sexually attracted to."

Sexy on the Beach!

FIERY reality TV series Ex on the Beach returned last night with a trio of scorching new girls set to liven up our screens, judging by their sizzling publicity shots.

The hit MTV show is back for its seventh series and glamour girl Che McSorley, 19, sparked fireworks in the villa as THREE men fought to win her attention during the first episode.

Blonde bombshell Che (left) stunned onlookers at the promotional event too, almost popping out of her bright orange jewelled swimsuit as she bent over.

Geordie Shore star Chloe Ferry, 21, also washed up on the Bali beach in last night's opening episode sporting a Baywatch babe plunging red swimwear.

Georgia Crone, 20, made up the bevy of beauties and strutted her stuff in a tiny pink bikini which got fans chomping at the bit for her beach arrival.

MICHELLE'S FURY

You're WRIGHT out of order, Mark!

STUNNING actress Michelle Keegan is FURIOUS with husband Mark Wright after he was spotted partying with A-lister Jessica Lowndes.

Former soap babe Michelle, 30, is currently filming the third series of Our Girl in South Africa whilst her hubby is enjoying his LA lifestyle.

Mark, 30, landed a TV presenting gig on American entertainment show Extra and his new job has seen him rub shoulders with Hollywood's leading ladies including Mariah Carey, 47, and Nicole Kidman, 50.

He was caught hanging out with 90210 stunna Jessica, 28, who used to date Mark's pal, Thom Evans, 32.

However, once Michelle got word of his lavish partying with single girl and striking brunette beauty Jessica, she allegedly saw red.

Contacts

A source said: "Mark was working in LA in the lead up to filming for the show and he hit the town to boost his profile and make more contacts.

"Michelle understands he needs to be seen out on the party scene, but when Mark's sister let slip that Jessica Lowndes had been hanging out with them, it got Michelle's back up.

"She told him she didn't feel comfortable that he was hanging out with single women. She said it was inappropriate – especially when his wife was working thousands of miles away.

"Mark insisted he hadn't spoken to Jessica or any single girls who came near him but Michelle is feeling particularly vulnerable."

To add to the growing divide in their relationship, Mark also skipped Michelle's 30th birthday celebrations last week, instead choosing to DJ in Magaluf.

Double D-oughnut delight!

REALITY TV babe Louise Thompson posed topless in a cheeky bedroom shot, with just sweet treats to cover her pert pair.

The 27-year-old Made In Chelsea stunna looked good enough to eat in her flirty snap as she held up two doughnuts to cover her very own delights.

LOVE Island babe Amber Davies might be new to reality telly – but she's already romped with a number of famous faces.

The 20-year-old Welsh stunna, who is currently starring in the ITV2 singles show, revealed she has had flings with 'seven or eight' celebrities.

And while Amber was reluctant to name her famous former conquests, she did reveal that she's dated stars of TOWIE, Geordie Shore and Made In Chelsea, as well as a musician.

She said: "No famous exes, but I've had a few encounters.

"Between going on dates, texting, sleeping with and kissing, I'd say, like, seven or eight different celebrities."

Katy's one in a million!

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

POP babe Katy Perry has become the first person EVER to reach 100 MILLION followers on Twitter.

The Bon Appetit singer made history last week when she hit the milestone and became the most followed person on the planet.

Katy, 32, celebrated her achievement by posting: "Thank you, @Twitter, for always giving me an opportunity to have a voice!"

The social media platform congratulated the American pop star, and said: "Today we #WITNESS history. Congratulations @ katyperry, the first to reach 100 million followers! #LoveKaty."

Hot on Katy's heels is Canadian chart-topper Justin Bieber who boasts 97million followers, while the former U.S. President, Barack Obama, has more than 90million.

Katy trounced her arch-nemesis Taylor Swift, who has 15million fewer followers, while President Donald Trump can only manage a third of Katy's following.

The busty babe released her fifth studio album, Witness, earlier this month, which debuted at number five in the UK album chart.

14 more child sex abuse charges for ex-coach Bennell

FORMER football coach Barry Bennell has been charged with a further 14 counts of historic sex abuse against boys as young as 11.

The 63-year-old is accused of a total of 55 offences between 1979 and 1991 against young boys.

He has previously denied the accusations during a succession of court appearances.

Four complainants who were aged between 11 and 14 at the time of the alleged offences are the subject of the latest charges, which include indecent assault and buggery.

The accusations are four counts of indecent assault on a boy aged 11 to 14, four counts of indecent assault on a boy aged 11 to 12 and two counts of indecent assault on a boy aged 11 to 13.

He is also charged with four counts of buggery on a boy aged 11 to 14.

Former Crewe coach Bennell will appear at South Cheshire Magistrates' Court via video-link on June 28.

Head for stars urges Hawking

HUMANITY will have to head for the stars if it is to survive, Professor Stephen Hawking says.

The top physicist (above), 75, told the Starmus science and arts festival in Trondheim, Norway, that interstellar travel – impossible with today's technology – should be a definite long-term aim "in the next 200 to 500 years".

Via a video link to the festival he imagined Star Trek-style reactors to travel to the stars.

Adopting the role of "cosmic sloths" enjoying the universe from the comfort of Earth was not an option, he maintained.

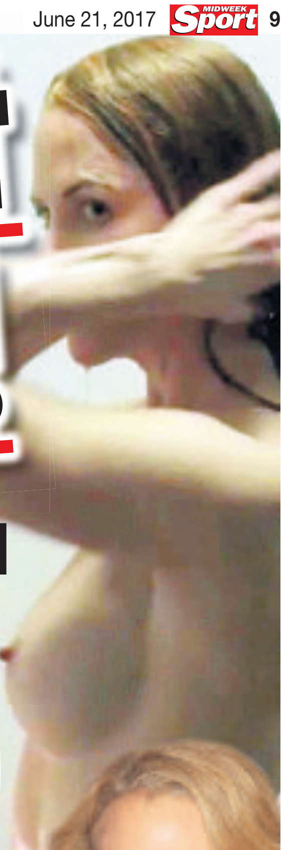
NICOLE KIDMAN FEELS LIKE A 21-YEAR-OLD

(And with this body she could get one!)



'Ere, look at these!

By KATIE ARCHER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

NICOLE Kidman is celebrating her 50th birthday – but says she still tries to live with the carefree attitude of a 21-year-old.

The actress said she is happy to have hit the milestone birthday and feels her career is as healthy as ever, with a nomination at this year's Oscars for her role in Lion and critical acclaim for her TV series Big Little Lies.

Nicole said: "It feels sort of like an accomplishment. But I still try to conduct myself with the abandon of a 21-year-old.

"It's been a wonderful year for me. Things work in mysterious ways, right? And I'm just thankful to have been given all this in the year I turn 50."

Big Little Lies is a darkly comic TV adaptation of Liane Moriarty's book about a group of school mums.

Nicole said: "I'm astounded at the way in which this series has worked globally. It' like being in a massive hit film."

However, she admits not all of her starring roles have been such hits, including the widely-panned Grace Of Monaco in 2014.

She said: "I have fallen off the cliff a few times."

Nicole said she likes to throw her weight behind up-and-coming filmmakers to champion new talent.

She added: "It's a great thing at this stage of my life, now I have some sort of power, to be able to facilitate someone's career."

Tot had loaded gun in toy box

A LOADED GUN was handed to cops by a toddler – who'd found the weapon in his toy box.

Officers were carrying out a child welfare check at the three-year-old's family home when the boy brought out his toybox and brandished the pistol.

The police were visiting the home, in Boynton Beach, Florida, USA, to investigate claims of possible child neglect.

While officers spoke to the adult under suspicion, Rosalyn Faniel, 34, the tot fetched his My Little Learning toy chest and lifted out the loaded 9mm pistol.

Faniel denied having any knowledge of the firearm, however police also discovered a box of 9mm ammunition on top of the refrigerator.

Faniel was arrested on a charge of child neglect and is currently on bail.

Lorde sorry for sick Taylor quip

LORDE has apologised after she compared her friendship with Taylor Swift to being pals with someone with an auto-immune disease.

The musician, 20, was asked in an interview what it's like being friends with someone as famous as Swift.

She replied: "It's like having a friend with very specific allergies. There are certain places you can't go together. Certain things you can't do. There are these different considerations. It's like having a friend with an auto-immune disease."

An angry fan tweeted Lorde saying her comment was "ignorant" and asked how it would affect Selena Gomez, who has auto-immune disease lupus.

Lorde (left) replied: "Didn't mention taylor, regardless, i fked up & that was really insensitive. i'm sorry."

Kelly McGREGOR

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

KINKY Kelly McGregor has revealed all about a particularly saucy video that she hopes will never see the light of day.

The glamour babe confessed to making a SEX TAPE with a boyfriend when she was younger and said the fella held onto it when they split up.

Kelly, 28, from Stoke-on-Trent, told us she often worries about her homemade porno being leaked or stolen, as she admitted the shagging session was one of her most rampant.

The 32DD scorcher said: "My sex tape was made when I was younger, with an old boyfriend.

"It was quite rude and we did it in loads of different positions.

"Luckily, we split up on good terms because the video camera was his and he kept the tape! But sometimes I get scared thinking: "What if he gets burgled and the tape gets stolen?" I think I might be just a little bit embarrassed if the world saw me having sex!"

COUPLE DROWN IN BACK SEAT SEX SESSION

Shaking plunges their car into lake

TRAGIC: Evgeny and Yana

By COLING HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A COUPLE died after their off-road vehicle rolled into a lake as they had sex.

The pair, both 22, could not escape from their car as it sank, and they tragically drowned on the vehicle's back seat.

School physical education teacher Evgeny Chernov and his girlfriend Yana Kryuchkova had earlier driven to the lake but worried relatives later reported them missing when they failed to return.

Andrey Fedotov, an official of the Russian Investigative Committee in the country's Volograd region, said: "The car was lifted out of the lake and the bodies of the young people were found on the back seat."

Passionate

Detectives say the couple were "making love on the back seat when the car was parked near the lake", according to local reports.

The car had been left in neutral gear, it was confirmed, but their passionate movements jolted the Niva so it edged forwards into the lake near Elan.

A report by local news site Bloknot Volgograd said: "The lovers were shaking the car and it rolled down to the water.

"The young man and his girl failed to get out of the SUV in the water."

A social media posting by a friend said: "We will remember you!!! so young! Rest in peace... You are in our hearts forever."

Lizard cocks sold as good luck charms

WILDLIFE investigators from India and Britain have uncovered an international fraud in which dried penises of lizards are being sold as a plant root regarded as a good luck charm and used in religious rituals.

The London-based group World Animal Protection (WAP) said the dried penises of Bengal monitor lizards and yellow monitor lizards look similar to a rare plant root sought by people who believe it brings good luck.

While the plant has disappeared from the Indian countryside, wildlife traffickers have been buying the dried lizard penises and selling them online.

UNSUNG VISIT: Adele with fire heroes

ADELE'S TEA AND CAKE FOR TOWER HEROES

SINGER Adele thanked firefighters for tackling the Grenfell Tower blaze by banging on a window and offering cake.

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

The star, 29, turned up for "a cup of tea and a cuddle" and joined fire-tackling heroes in a minute's silence at a fire station in Chelsea.

Adele's unannounced arrival followed her low-key visit to the scene of the fire, in west London, shortly after it started.

Chelsea Fire Station manager Ben King said: "She just turned up at the station, knocked on the window and said she has some cakes for us.

"So we opened the door to her and then she took her sunglasses off and said 'Hi, I'm Adele'.

"Everyone was so shocked. She came up to the mess and had a cup of tea with the watch and then she joined us for the minute's silence."

Rob Petty posted the photos of the singer smiling with firemen on Facebook.

"Not everyday the wonderfully grounded and caring Adele pops into Chelsea Firestation for a cup of tea and a cuddle x", he wrote.

Ginger failed in bid to pull tragic George

SPICE Girl Geri Horner has revealed how she once tried to chat-up late pop star George Michael.

Geri, 44, confessed to having a huge crush on the tragic Wham! frontman, who passed away on Christmas Day last year.

Geri (above), known as Ginger Spice at the height of her fame, attempted to woo the star when she first met him at the Capital Music Awards.

She explained: "I was drawn to him. Also I really fancied him. I was thinking how I could lose the rest of the Spice Girls as I wanted to speak to him by myself.

"Eventually, I managed to shake them off and I bounded over. I was laying it on thick, doing the flirty eyes, but he just wasn't responding to it at all.

"We exchanged numbers anyway and I assumed he's ring me for a flirt. But when he did call, he dropped in the phrase 'my boyfriend', and my jaw just dropped. I was so shocked."

Ellen killing: man charged

A MAN has been charged with the murder of a teenager.

Mark Steven Buckley, 51, was arrested at an address in Preston, Lancs, on Sunday and was charged yesterday, police said.

The body of Ellen Higginbottom (above) was discovered in Orrell Water Park in Wigan at 2.30am on Saturday.

The 18-year-old's family had raised the alarm after she failed to return from college on Friday.

A post-mortem exam revealed she died from multiple neck wounds.

Buckley will appear before Wigan JPs today.

BIG BRO CHANELLE: MY FANNY IS CALLED HOMER SIMPSON!

SLIP-UP: Chanelle nearly showed off her 'Homey' entering the house

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

BIG Brother* babe Chanelle McClearys fanny is named after one of The Simpsons because of the way it looks.

Chanelle, 24, revealed that her boyfriend calls her vagina Homer because of the way her "lips tuck in".

She made the confession during a candid chat with housemates Ellie Young, 23, and Deborah Agboola, 25.

Loudmouth Chanelle was in hysterics as she told her female friends exactly why her boyfriend has nicknamed her fanny after a cartoon character.

She said: "It's dead neat and tucked. Dead symmetrical, all tight and all tucked. My boyfriend calls it Homer Simpson because the lips tuck in, like"

Brunette beauty Chanelle then pursed her lips together, demonstrating to her pals what her nether regions looked like.

Ellie then said 'Homey' in reference to the American cartoon character before Rebecca Jayne, 32, asked: "Are you talking about your fanny again?"

Ellie then cheekily replied: "It's tight and right and likes a big fight."

Vagina

Chanelle then quipped back: "It doesn't give up much of a fight!"

It isn't the first time Chanelle has spoken about her vagina – she mentioned her fanny on the Channel 5 show's launch night.

The reality TV star wore a white dress which had thigh-high splits when she entered the house.

Her daring dress left her worried and she told Emma Willis she was nervous about making a fool of herself.

She said: "I'm just so nervous. I thought I was gonna slip and my fanny flaps were gonna be out!"

However, Chanelle could have suffered deja-vu as just minutes later, her dress left her tiny knickers on show.

Despite being in the house for just two weeks, Chanelle has been at the centre of a number of the more controversial moments.

On Saturday night, she had to be separated from housemate Kayleigh Morris as the pair scrapped in a violent catfight.

Kayleigh, 28, was axed from the house after threatening to smash Chanelle's face in with a sharp object.

MAN DENIES KILLING 2 LOVERS 5 YEARS APART

A "POSSESSIVE, controlling" man killed two of his former girlfriends five years apart, with their deaths recorded at the time as being caused by accidental or natural causes, a court heard.

Robert Trigg, 52, is accused of murdering Susan Nicholson, 52, whose body was found on a sofa they had both slept on in Worthing, West Sussex, on April 17, 2011.

Trigg is also charged with the manslaughter of Caroline Devlin, 35, who was found dead in bed by one of her children at her home, also Worthing, on March 26, 2006.

The prosecution at Lewes Crown Court said that when each death was viewed in more depth, "significant similarities" emerged.

The trial heard that after both causes of death were re-assessed, the pathologist concluded Ms Nicholson was suffocated after having her head deliberately forced into the bed, and Ms Devlin's death was caused by a blow to the back of her head.

Jurors were told that both women had been subjected to violence from Trigg.

Trigg, of Worthing, denies murder and manslaughter.

The trial continues.

Death sentence for 'exorcist' who killed 3 children

A SELF-STYLED exorcist who killed three children during a ritual he carried out after telling their parents they were possessed by evil spirits has been sentenced to death in Burma.

Tun Naing (above) was sentenced at a court in Thanlyin over the deaths of two girls, aged eight months and two years, and a three-year-old boy.

The children suffered fatal injuries last October when Tun Naing punched and kicked them.

Superstition and belief in spirits are common in Burma, especially in rural villages in the Buddhist-dominated country.

Tun Naing had pleaded guilty when he was brought to trial in November last year, telling the court: "I lost control of my mind and I killed them."

The 30-year-old received an additional sentence of seven years in prison for severely injuring a four-year-old girl in a separate ceremony in another village.

JODIE MARSH IN SHOCK REVELATION:

MY BOOBS ARE A CURSE!

GLAMOUR model Jodie Marsh has revealed she puts the blame for her tacky image on... her HUGE KNOCKERS!

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

The 38-year-old presenter said she would look far more ladylike if she hadn't had her boobs boosted to an eye-watering 32H.

Jodie reckons she has frequently tried to dress demurely – but no matter what she wears, she always winds up looking sexy.

She said: "I just can't help it. Even when I'm not trying to be sexy, I think things come across as sexy."

And the busty blonde insisted: "I blame the boobs. I think it's because the boobs are so big.

"I really believe that if I didn't have such massive boobs, then I would look more demure and elegant.

Slutty

"I think with massive boobs then no matter what you do it's always, 'Oh look at her, she looks slutty'."

Jodie also revealed that she would love nothing more than to go back to having smaller boobs – but admitted she is nervous about going under the knife again.

She added: "I've said I'd like my boobs reduced, but I think you get more nervous about the risks of surgery as you get older.

"I feel like they're massive. If I could wave a magic wand and have smaller boobs, I would.

Broadchurch is setting for crime surge

CRIME is on the rise in the real-life setting of ITV's hit drama Broadchurch – and has been ever since the film crew turned up.

The Jurassic Coast resorts of West Bay and Bridport were used throughout the filming of the gritty show, which starred Olivia Colman and David Tennant (above) – but crime has sharply increased in the picture-postcard towns.

Broadchurch began in 2013 and since then Dorset Police's statistics show that crimes in the real settings have risen by 22 per cent.

Despite the show's first season featuring a murder plot of teenager Danny Latimer, there have been no murders – but violent crime has increased, leaping 72 per cent in the past three years, with 455 offences occurring last year alone.

The ITV hit focused on a rape case in its final series, aired earlier this year, reflecting a doubling of sexual offences in the coastal areas.

C5's to satisfy teacher crush

CHANNEL 5 could be pairing up former pupils with teachers they used to fancy in a bizarre new dating show.

In a bid to keep up with the popularity of racy shows such as Love Island, the station's bosses reckon they've found a new concept to titillate the nation.

Called Secret Admirer, the show plans on helping people date their secret crush and send them on dates.

A source said: "Singletons will be shown plucking up the courage to admit their feelings directly to their crush."

The new show could see pupils get off with their old school teachers among other more weird and wonderful crushes.

There is currently no schedule for the show and bosses have yet to find a host but Channel 5 is keen to get the idea to the small screen.

HER TOPLESS YACHT ROMP WITH TV ALFIE

CRACK SHOT: Alfie gets rear-ly accurate

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

YOU can't blame Game of Thrones star Alfie Allen for wanting to get a better view of scorching girlfriend Allie Teilz's rear end.

The 30-year-old brother of Lily Allen enjoyed a sizzling beach day with his DJ girlfriend, 23, as the pair soaked up the sun in Formentera, Spain.

Blonde babe Allie was pictured with cigarette in hand as she showed off her jaw-dropping figure in a red, white and blue two-piece.

But it wasn't long before she was ditching her top and baring her boobs to avoid tan lines.

Perky

Alfie, who plays Theon Greyjoy in the hit fantasy series, could be seen taking candid snaps of his other half – and he even bent down to get a closer view as he took a shot of his girlfriend's perky arse!

The loved-up couple soaked up the sun from a private yacht before jumping into rubber rings and taking a dip in the Mediterranean Sea.

Allie and Alfie haven't been dating long and the actor was previously linked to Mr Selfridge actress Sai Bennett in 2016.

He was also in an on-off relationship with Babs actress Jaime Winstone for more than seven years.

Is divorce on cards for Kim and Kanye?

A-LIST couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West could be heading for a divorce as reports suggest she's ready to go it alone.

Reality star Kim, 36, has reportedly grown tired of her 40-year-old husband Kanye's erratic behaviour and she's considering calling time on their marriage.

A source said: "They've been having a trial separation. But Kim has really been enjoying her freedom.

"She feels as though they've become really stale as a celebrity couple.

"She'll be potentially negotiating deals for a big TV interview about her life without Kanye, as well as getting her own solo spin-off show on E!

"With all his behaviour this past year, Kim finally realised that it's Kanye who is holding her back. She's no longer afraid of being on her own."

Kim married third husband Kanye in May 2014 but ever since she became the victim of an armed robbery in Paris last October, rumours have been rife about the state of their relationship.

Stop gayness: grow a beard

RUSSIA's top religious leader says men should grow beards to protect them from being turned into GAYS.

Metropolitan Kornily, Primate of the Russian Orthodox Old Believer Church, reckons the West is full of homosexuals due to a lack of beards.

And he urges his fellow Russians to protect themselves from becoming good with colours by growing facial fuzz.

He said: "God gave us the rules. It is written that God created everyone with a beard.

"The West has completely fallen away from this concept, but this is clear.

"The icons – we cannot imagine Christ or saints without a beard."

Although sodomy was decriminalised in Russia back in 1993 the country had previously imprisoned people found guilty of homosexual acts.

TEACHER BANNED FOR SEX IN CLASSROOM WITH TEEN GIRL PUPIL

He filmed romps on school camera

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

A PHYSICS teacher who had sex with a pupil in a classroom at a top boarding school and recorded their steamy sessions on his phone has been kicked out of the profession.

Dean Johnson, 52, struck up a relationship with the teenage girl while working at the £36,000-a-year Charterhouse School in Godalming, Surrey, between January and July 2008.

The pair began having sex in June and had sexual activity in a classroom on another occasion, as well as in Johnson's car when he gave her a lift to the dinner hall.

Johnson bought stockings, which he asked her to put on in a classroom, and used a camera partly bought with school funds, as well as his own phone, to record their sex sessions.

Fantasies

The pair discussed their sexual fantasies on Facebook and he gave her a special edition of her favourite film for her 18th birthday.

The relationship continued during the months after the pupil left the school, but Johnson was arrested on 12 April 2013 after the girl made a complaint against him.

Police seized two of Johnson's laptops and discovered 'extreme' and 'perverted' pornographic images.

That led to him being handed an eight-month jail sentence, suspended for 24 months, at Guildford Crown Court in May 2015 after being convicted for possession of extreme pornographic images.

The National College for Teaching and Leadership regulator also found him guilty of a series of allegations relating to having an inappropriate relationship with the girl.

Panel chair Gail Goodman said: "Mr Johnson's actions were calculated and planned.

"A clear example of this is where he invited Pupil A to the classroom when they had sexual intercourse.

"On her arrival, the blinds had already been drawn and Mr Johnson locked the door.

"Such activity, which took place in the classroom and with a pupil still on the school roll, is completely unacceptable.

"The panel is particularly concerned to note that, in a sexual relationship founded on Mr Johnson exercising his influence as a teacher, he resorted to practices such as recording his sexual activity with Pupil A.

"The sexual relationship between her and Mr Johnson was developed and encouraged by him."

Johnson, who began working at the school in September 1997, resigned on 16 April 2013.

The panel decided his behaviour amounted to unacceptable professional conduct and he was banned from teaching indefinitely.

ENGLAND'S young lions might want to keep watching Love Island's boobs ahead of their crunch match tomorrow night.

Monday night's hero Nathan Redmond, 23, who scored the winner in a 2-1 comeback over Slovakia in the European Championships at Keilce, Poland, said the Under 21 stars have been catching up on ITV2's reality hit ahead of their big games.

So Southampton star Redmond and his mates should keep ogling these stunning racks ahead of tomorrow's crucial tie with host nation Poland, who are already out of the competition after only managing a 1-1 draw with Sweden.

Redmond revealed that the squad watching Love Island has been a team bonding experience.

He said: "It's not your traditional team bonding initiative but it keeps everyone together. It's our guilty pleasure."

If staring at these boobs doesn't get the Under 21's fired up ahead of Thursday night's Euro's match, we don't know what will!

'Fire started by man who came to see us bonk'

A WOMAN who claimed a fire at her flat may have been started by a man who came to watch her and her boyfriend have sex has been jailed.

Carol Adamson, 34, denied a reckless arson charge following the fire in July last year, but she was convicted of starting it herself and jailed for three years.

The court heard she told police and fire officers her boyfriend had invited a man into the flat to watch her bonk him, but they did not have sex.

Her boyfriend left and it was possible the man had hidden under the bed without her knowing and then set the flat on fire, said Adamson, of Wrexham, but she was probably angry at her boyfriend.

Sentencing her at Mold Crown Court, Judge Niclas Parry said the block of six flats was safely evacuated.

But he said: "In the current climate it is chilling to think what could have happened.

"Acting out of anger and frustration, you quite deliberately started a fire."

Mark wants to be first undie model knight

TRANSFORMERS star Mark Wahlberg has said he would love to be the first rapper and underwear model to be knighted.

The actor, formerly known as Marky Mark when he was frontman of The Funky Bunch, said he is keen to follow in the footsteps of his co-star Sir Anthony Hopkins and land a place on the honours list.

The duo star in Transformers: The Last Knight, in which Wahlberg returns as struggling inventor Cade Yaeger and Sir Anthony joins the cast as Sir Edmund Burton, an astronomer.

Wahlberg (above), 46, said spending time with the Welsh actor made him want a knighthood of his own.

He said: "I've been trying to do that. Can you help me? Do you know the Queen? Can you write a letter of recommendation? Could you say I have the qualities?

"That would be so cool, the first rapper, the first underwear model, American actor to become a knight."

Son punches mum for eating burger

AN angry son punched his mother after rowing over a cheeseburger.

Noah Sullivan-Lincoln, 19, was furious when he walked into the kitchen of the home he shared with his parents and found her eating the burger.

He called her selfish for not making him one and knocked it out of her hands.

When she complained he punched her in the face and spat at her before she managed to get away and call the police in Florida.

Reports say the teen may have been under the influence of drugs when he flipped.

After his arrest, he confessed to the attack and had to spend half a day in the county jail before being released.

Sullivan-Lincoln, who works for a window replacement firm, has been ordered not to have contact with his mother.

With her 30G bust, the Weymouth, Dorset-born beauty gave her bloke the very BREAST kind of relief when she wrapped her sweater-stretchers round his cock as he was driving.

However, it wasn't just her lucky man who enjoyed the ride, as plenty of lorry drivers copped a glance at her sensational boobs.

Brookie, 24, said: "The riskiest thing I've ever done was give my fella breast relief on a busy motorway!

"We were driving down the M6 from Manchester to Stafford when I started feeling really randy, and he was up for it.

"I think some of the other drivers enjoyed it, too – I got a couple of honks from lorries as they passed!"

‘Head hid w*nking hubby from bosses’

A HEADTEACHER failed to tell bosses that her school handyman husband was being investigated by police for masturbating in front of a teenager, a disciplinary panel heard.

Sarah Kate Cooke was principal of Foxhole Academy primary school where her spouse, Peter Cooke, carried out occasional maintenance.

She resigned after her husband of 30 years was arrested early last year, but a teaching disciplinary panel heard that while still employed, she failed to tell bosses or carry out proper checks which would have flagged a caution Mr Cooke received in 2012 for stealing and wearing women’s clothing.

And in 2015 he was seen by neighbours, a teenage boy and the boy’s mother, watching pornography on a tablet and masturbating.

Concerns came to light when the school in St Austell, Cornwall, was taken over by a trust.

Mrs Cooke, of Newquay, Cornwall, had told an earlier investigation she was “too ashamed” to tell anyone.

She was not present for the hearing and faces a teaching ban if the allegations are proven.

Private sub with a bar and room for 20 mates...

WORLD’S No. 1 BOY TOY!

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

IT’S the ultimate boy’s toy – a private submarine that has a bar and lounge area that can cater for up to 20 guests.

And you can party the night away under the waves to a depth of 1,600ft.

The 60ft Neyk sub is something straight out of a James Bond movie.

Its creators reckon it’s engine is virtually noiseless and that it is “as agile as a shark”.

Prototype

The Neyk, which is a collaboration between Ocean Submarine and Rolls-Royce, is currently being built in the Netherlands with the first prototype expected to be presented in January next year.

There’s no word yet on its price, but you can safely assume if you have to ask, you won’t be able to afford it.

Top Nazi haul uncovered in Buenos Aires

POLICE believe they have found the biggest collection of Nazi artifacts in Argentina's history, including a bust of Adolf Hitler and a macabre medical device used to measure head size.

Some 75 objects were found in a collector's home in Beccar, a suburb north of Buenos Aires, and authorities say they suspect they belonged to top Nazis in Germany during the Second World War.

Security minister Patricia Bullrich said: "Our investigations indicate that these are original pieces," adding that many pieces were accompanied by old photographs.

"This is a way to commercialise them, showing that they were used...by the Fuhrer. There are photos of him with the objects."

Among the items were toys used to indoctrinate children, and a statue of the Nazi Eagle above a swastika (above).

The items may have been brought to the country by Auschwitz monster Josef Mengele.

A hearty bonk is best for fellas

SHAGGING has been proven to protect your heart – but only if you're a bloke.

New research has revealed that regular romps can slash the risk of suffering from cardiac problems, such as heart disease, dramatically.

But the study, which found that just three or four bonks a week can make a big difference, only applies to men.

Regular sex has been found to reduce the amount of chemical homocysteine in the blood, which can trigger heart problems at high levels.

However scientists reckon that men who have frequent sex have better blood flow and healthier blood vessels, which stops the chemical from building up.

Women benefit less from an active sex life as their arousal is less dependent on having a healthy blood flow.

Keep your golden oldies, Harry!

(Are you sure, Niall?)

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

POP star Niall Horan claims that older women just don't do it for him.

Unlike his former One Direction bandmate Harry Styles, Niall says he isn't interested in mature women because he's only a young pup himself.

Niall, who struck up a very flirty friendship with Lorraine Kelly, 56, says that women closer to his age are a better match.

Lorraine and Niall sent social media into a frenzy when they spoke about sex on the telly host's morning show last week – and their flirty exchange even led to Niall asking her for her phone number.

However, Niall ruled out a romance and said: "Not for me. Too old, I'm 23. I've been so busy I haven't noticed if there has been any more attention from the ladies. I've been really boring."

Niall has previously dated actress and singer Selena Gomez, 24, and 23-year-old Victoria's Secret model Barbara Palvin.

Cougar

However, heart-throb Harry has a penchant for the older lady having history with a whole host of stars older than his own 23 years.

His past romances include Caroline Flack, 37, and Taylor Swift, 27, and his current squeeze, Tess Ward, is five years older than him.

Harry's famous cougar exes reportedly include 38-year-old Nicole Scherzinger and Rod Stewart's daughter Kimberley, 37.

He also found himself at the centre of an affair after 37-year-old DJ Lucy Horobin's husband claimed Harry romped with her behind his back.

Comedy actress Erin Foster, 34, reportedly spent time with the singer, as did Made In Chelsea star Caggie Dunlop, 28.

Model Sara Sampaio, 25, allegedly had a fling with the solo artist, and he's rumoured to have dated The Inbetweeners' stunna, actress Emily Atack, 27.

SHE IS BRITAIN'S ONLY TOPLESS COLUMNIST

Linsey Dawn McKenzie

AFTER this week's column hits the shelves, I'll be heading straight to the airport to jet off to sunny Marbella for a hen do!

There are nine of us girls going in total for four boozy days in the sun to celebrate my friend getting married – so things will probably get pretty wild!

Make sure you follow me on Snapchat to see what we're all getting up to in our gorgeous private villa and I promise to spill all of the gossip in next week's column once I am back and have recovered fully.

I've been working extra hard this past week to make up for the fact that I won't be on telly or webcam while I'm abroad, so you guys will have to wait another week to see me back on Studio 66.

To fill the void while I'm gone though, I thought I'd share this sexy summer photo with you from the shoot I did in Spain earlier this year.

This photo is part of a new never-seen-before set that will go live on my website www.linseydawnmckenzie.co.uk in the couple of weeks, so make sure you sign up to see the full set!

Tower victims deserve answers

AS a child I grew up in a London tower block similar to Grenfell Tower, which was destroyed in a horrific blaze last week.

So when I saw the images of the tower burning on Tuesday morning, it really hit home to me.

What started as a small kitchen fire, caused by a faulty fridge, somehow turned into a raging inferno that is believed to have claimed the lives of at least 79 people so far, with the death toll still likely to rise further.

It seems clear since the tragedy happened that serious errors were made by people in positions of power, whether that blame falls with the council who owned the building, those who maintained it, or those involved with its recent multi-million pound refurbishment.

Now that people have had time to come to terms with what happened and the fact that they may never see their loved ones again, people are angry and they deserve answers from the authorities.

The people responsible for the series of blunders that allowed this heart-breaking tragedy to happen need to be named and shamed.

So many families have had loves ones taken from them in what I've seen described as a 'foreseeable event', not to mention their homes ripped from them and all their belongings destroyed.

I know that nothing can ever bring back those who were killed in the fire, but I hope that their families don't have to wait too long for justice and eventually will be able to find some peace in that.

HUGE respect to Ant McPartlin for being so open about his admission to a rehab facility, following a battle with drink and prescription drugs.

I think it's so brave of him not to hide his troubles and speak honestly, rather than lying to the public and trying to keep it out of the newspapers.

I haven't seen a single negative message since the news broke over the weekend and I think it will really help Ant in his recovery to know that the public, especially Ant & Dec's fans, are behind him 100 per cent.

I love Ant and Dec, they are national treasures, so I hope Ant takes all the time he needs and gets better soon!

MY heart goes out to the victims of the terror attack which happened outside of a mosque in Finsbury Park this week when a white, 47-year-old man from Cardiff mowed down Muslim worshippers after an evening prayer session.

I just can't get my head around the fact that we live in a world where attacks like these happen so often and I really hope this latest attack, which clearly targeted Muslims, does not spur on copycats who believe that Islam is to blame for previous acts of terror.

While these atrocious acts might be committed in the name of a religious group or someone's political beliefs, at the end of the day they all have the same outcome – the unnecessary and brutal killing of totally innocent people.

In recent months, Britain has shown that we are stronger when we unite as one country against these cowardly terrorists, rather than turning on each other, and we need to continue down that path.

Just six months into the year, we've already been hit by four attacks on home soil and I really hope there are not more to come – too many innocent lives have been lost already.

I SHAVED MY HEAD SO I'M NOT A SEX SYMBOL

NOW HAIR THIS! Rose tried to make a bald statement

(Too late, luv!)

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

GORGEOUS Hollywood actress Rose McGowan reckons she's SHAVED her head in a bid to be LESS SEXY.

The 43-year-old scorcher cut off her flowing brown locks in favour of a skinhead in 2015 – and said she did it to remove the 'sex target' from her back.

Rose said: "I realised I had broken up with someone. I broke up with you. The collective you, the societal you.

"I broke up with the Hollywood ideal, the one that I had a part in playing.

Secret

"The ideal version of a woman that is sold to you by every actress in every hair commercial telling you 'this is the secret to being beguiling, the secret to getting a man to want you'.

"My long hair had always made me uncomfortable. It felt like I had a plant on my head and a sex target on my back.

"It made men en masse look at me while the real me disappeared."

But it might be a bit late for Rose to decide she doesn't want to be thought of as a sex symbol, as she has already bared her baps for a number of on-screen roles.

The Charmed stunna stripped off for 1995 dark comedy flick The Doom Generation, when she played teenager Amy Blue who goes on the run with her lover and a pal.

Rose has also ditched her clothes for our pleasure in the likes of comedy-drama Going All the Way (1997) and comedy crime thriller Lewis and Clark and George (1998).

DRUNK FARMER DIES AFTER PENIS IS BITTEN OFF IN FIGHT WITH PIG

RASHER DECISION: Drunk Miguel had fight with porker

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A DRUNKEN farmer has died after picking a fight with one of his pigs – which then bit off his genitals and three of his fingers.

Miguel Anaya Pablo, 60, decided to start grappling with his pig after a night out on the sauce.

Locals say the pig became aggressive after the farmer provoked it, jumping up and knocking him over.

The animal then bit off three of the fingers of Sr Pablo's right hand and his penis.

The farmer was rushed to hospital in the nearby town of Tuxtepec, Mexico, and treated for the injuries.

But despite their best efforts, doctors could not control the loss of blood and bacterial infections caused by the pig's bites.

Stumbled

An autopsy has been ordered to find out more about the exact circumstances of the death.

A neighbour who had been out drinking with Sr Pablo and who raised the alarm when he was attacked, told reporters: "Miguel was a lovely man but murder when he'd had a drink.

"We'd been knocking them back since mid-afternoon so by the time we stumbled home, he was well gone.

"As we approached his farm he saw this giant pig of his in its sty and said, 'Watch this, I'll show that fat porker who's boss'.

"He then jumped in the sty and started to aim punches at the pig, who jumped at him, knocking him to the ground.

"Then all hell broke loose. There was blood all over the place. His genital area was soaked in blood.

"That's some angry pig."

Diane's acting perk is a role lot of hot men

ACTRESS Diane Keaton has revealed that MEN are the biggest perk of her job.

Annie Hall star Diane (above), 71, said she's been lucky enough to have played a host of characters who were in love at all ages, opposite a bevy of handsome male co-stars.

And the American Oscar winner says her career in Hollywood has given her access to all sorts of different blokes.

She said: "It's been fabulous! It's the perfect relationship. We tell these stories and then they leave. Perfect!

"I got to play around with all different kinds of men."

Some of Diane's most famous leading men include Al Pacino, who she starred alongside in 1972 smash hit The Godfather, and Jack Nicholson in 2003's Something's Gotta Give.

Her latest movie, Hampstead, sees her in the role of a widow falling for a recluse who squatted in a shack on Hampstead Heath for 17 years.

Firms in spin over ballbearing prices

THE world is facing a shortage of the tiny ball bearings used to make fidget spinners – which could send prices of the toys soaring.

Factories making the gadgets are demanding money up front and have increased prices by up to 200 per cent.

Import company Zing, which sells two kinds of spinners called Spinzipz and Spinbladez, has been forced to bring "bags of cash" to some factories in China just to make sure its orders are confirmed.

The firm's boss Josh Loerzel said: "Factories are asking for cash up front, and the price varies daily – anywhere from 50 per cent to 200 per cent more."

Zing expects to sell up to five million spinners in the U.S. this year, but added: "They tell us, 'We don't have any more of the ball bearings unless you want to pay more'."

GORGEOUS Georgie Darby wants a bonkathon where she's so satisfied it HURTS.

The kinkster says she's ready for a good seeing-to EIGHT TIMES a day and wants hot porn-style filthy sex every time.

Georgie, 26, who's from Guildford, Surrey, has both of her nipples of her 32F boobies pierced.

More shockingly, she says a fella once pleased her with his huge dick while she was tied up.

Satisfied

She said: "If it was up to me, I would have sex seven or eight times a day.

"I like the feeling of being totally satisfied – to the point where you're almost sore!

"I love ANYTHING kinky. I love being tied up to a bed and being seen-to by a dominating man.

"One time in particular, I was tied to a chair with my hands behind my back and a gag in my mouth.

"This guy came over and removed my gag – and put his huge cock in my mouth.

"I loved it, it was so sexy, it was just like being in a filthy porno. And the whole thing turned me on so much!"

Mary Denny says...

> SOMETIMES I get so horny I just want a quickie. When I do get to have one I can climax in less 10 minutes, so you can imagine what I'm like after half an hour!

Sabrina Murphy says...

> IT'S about the quality of the sex – if it's that good the bloke will have you cumming in less than 30 minutes. But if I'm still waiting for an orgasm after 30 minutes, I've lost interest.

Kelly Gilhooly says...

> ONLY half an hour? My favourite shags are the ones that last for over an hour and I have multiple orgasms. Although, if I get six 30-minute shags in one night I can definitely work with that!

Brit shaggers done in just 19 minutes

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

BRITS are falling short in the sack as their average romp time is just 19 MINUTES, an intimate new study has revealed.

Most shagging sessions around the world last about half an hour – but British couples get the deed done eleven minutes quicker.

Online sex toy retailer Lovehoney quizzed 4,400 people on their bedroom habits and how long they spent getting frisky.

Luckily, 52 per cent of couples asked were satisfied with the 30-minute bonk but for 23 per cent of men and 15 per cent of women, half an hour was way too short.

Results revealed that many folk settle for a quickie and fail to have a proper sex session 21 per cent of the time.

Lovehoney's survey found that although the average bonk lasts 30 minutes, most British couples only last 19 minutes.

And if they broke down their swift romp it was 10 minutes of foreplay and just nine minutes of full shagging.

Despite the length of a session not lasting as long as most couples across the globe, almost 90 per cent of Brit lovers said they had achieved a shared orgasm at some point.

G-Spot

To help the remaining 10 per cent reach their peak together, Lovehoney sexpert Jess Wilde gave tips on how to achieve a mutual big-O.

She said that pelvic floor exercises for women can help, and also encouraged men to locate their woman's G-Spot.

Sexpert Jess said: "It is fantastic news that almost 90 per cent of couples have achieved shared orgasms at some point in their relationship.

"For around half of couples this is the absolute peak of sexual happiness, so we are always looking at ways to help them share orgasms together with greater consistency.

"For women, the key to orgasming easily is to have a strong and healthy pelvic floor, and there are simple exercises they can do to strengthen the muscles in this area. Men can play their part during intercourse by making sure they hit exactly the right spot to stimulate the G-Spot during penetration.

"This is at 27-degrees, and sex pillows can help to get you both into the optimum pose for pleasure."

We asked three Midweek Sport stunnas what they think of British average bonking times...

Plane bonks can be Miles better!

Marie McRae
Age 19, 34B-24-34 from Lincoln

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

IF YOU'RE not a member of the Mile High Club you could be missing out on the best shag of your life.

New research reveals that sex on a plane can give you better orgasms, and the vibrations add even more pleasure to the risqué romp.

More than 20 per cent of flyers claim the belong in the club's ranks and got a kick out of getting their rocks off at 30,000 feet.

Brits are some of the keenest frisky flyers despite it being illegal to have sex on a commercial flight.

Amorous

However, new research suggests that bonking at what is actually nearly six miles up has some added benefits and can increase pleasure for the amorous pair.

The risk factor which comes from romping on the plane heightens arousal but that's not the only attraction.

Mid-air romps can also give you better O's thanks to the lower atmospheric pressure on a plane.

With the jet thousands of feet in the air, the lower oxygen levels lead to the brain feeling more excited, which creates intense feelings of euphoria.

And the higher the plane goes, the less oxygen in the air, which leads to even better bonking on the flight.

Flying can also be a bumpy ride and added vibrations with turbulence and engines whirring away only increase the stimulation.

Sexpert Susan Quilliam said: "Flying can sometimes lower the amount of oxygen in your bloodstream and your brain – when safely achieved, this can make you feel even more aroused.

Climax

"The novelty and the excitement of sex in the air can also make for more excitement and an even better climax."

Sport stunna Marie McRae said: "I'm a fully-fledged member of the Mile High Club after me and my fella had sex in the plane loo last summer.

"We were under the blankets playing with each other when we decided to get frisky in the loo.

"He bent me over and shagged me so hard and fast I almost passed out with pleasure, it was incredible and the best way to end our holiday.

"Since we've got back, we've never experienced an orgasm quite like that one – the risk of being caught and the thought of being so air off the ground had us both coming in minutes."

‘Backdoor ‘accident’ got me REAR-ly up for more’

By HAZEL GROVE news@sundaysport.co.uk

STUNNA Susie Summers has ’fessed she’s partial to a bit of BUM FUN!

The sexy blonde revealed she “accidentally” tried some backdoor action and found herself enjoying it.

And glamour model Susie, who boasts ginormous 32FF boobs, is now eager to try it again.

The 32-year-old, from Peterborough, said: “It was just on a drunken night once with a really hot guy. It was a bit terrible because he had a girlfriend at the time.

“It just popped out at the wrong moment and went in the other hole. It took me by surprise, but I liked it.”

But when a bloke isn’t around, Susie finds other ways to unwind... by touching her own breasts.

“Sometimes I sit there feeling them up myself,” she added.

“They’re like stress balls, but BIG stress balls.

“I just like to give them a little squidge.”

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Lexi,

I LOVE women with big breasts but recently, most of the women I've pulled have left half their breasts on the floor when they've stripped.

There should be a law against this kind of "false advertising". What's the point of leading blokes on with their curvaceous knockers only to let them down with a bump when they reveal they have hardly any bumps and just a well-padded bra?

Now, being a decent sort of chap, I've never kicked them into touch because of this shortfall. In fact, I usually find I shag them twice as hard to work off my frustrations.

I've also come up with a scheme that pays dividends.

I get them to put on their padded bras in the morning and I like the sensation of feeling it while I take them from behind.

I hope you don't feel the need to stuff your bras with extra filling to pull blokes!

EK, Notts

Lexi says…

NO, I don't – but you need to understand why some girls do.

Dear Lexi,

I'M an 18-year-old virgin and my boyfriend has said he'll chuck me if we don't have full sex soon. I know it sounds old-fashioned but I'd like to stay a virgin until I'm married.

We've been seeing each other for almost six months and I'll do anything in bed for him – except go all the way.

You'd think it would be enough that I give him a blowjob whenever he fancies one. And I've even had a threeway masturbation thing with him and one of my bisexual girl pals.

We went back to his place after a night out and me and my pal started doing some suggestive dancing.

My boyfriend sat in the chair watching all this as my friend started fondling my 34D boobs before she unzipped my pants and slid them down and over the cheeks of my bum.

She pulled aside my G-string and thrust her fingers in and out while she massaged my clit. Then we swapped while my fella brought himself off. But now he still wants me to let him shag me.

What shall I do? KC, Co Durham

Lexi says…

YOU'RE working him into a right old frenzy but if he's not prepared to wait until you're ready, dump him.

I was stunned by wife's porn vid with two pals

Dear Lexi,

I'M a 29-year-old labourer and I have been married for six years.

Our sex life has always been pretty good and I have to say she's always up for it – usually a lot more than I am, to be honest.

It had never even crossed my mind that she could be unfaithful but the other week, rummaging around the back of the wardrobe while she was at work, I found a DVD of her and two blokes in a porno sex romp.

I was shocked when I saw my wife naked sucking on a cock while being boned from behind.

There was no mistaking the hungry way she fellated the guy with the massive tool – she'd done it to me enough times. I had to wait a few minutes to see who she was with. But when they all changed positions I got a good look at their faces – it was two of my pals!

They knobbed her in loads of positions, including doggy-style and her on top while sucking the other bloke off. I was at the same time outraged and also turned-on and I ended up giving myself a rub and tug as I watched.

When I tackled her about it she said that my pals had paid her £1,000, but when I asked them they said it was her idea.

What should I do?

Dirty lesbo cleaners are keeping me from duties

Dear Lexi,

I'M a night security man in an office block and I have to patrol the building to check everything's OK.

Recently I heard lots of giggling coming from one room.

I had a peep through the crack in the door, thinking it was one of the bosses who'd stayed back for a sex session with his secretary.

But I was amazed to find it was a couple of the women cleaners going at it with each other.

They'd stripped off their overalls and their undies – and what a pair of beauties they were.

Both were strongly-built with huge tits and a big shapely arses.

One was a blue-eyed blonde and the other a black babe with huge nipples.

They were lying on the floor facing each other but top-to-tail with their heads between the other's thighs.

As I watched they switched positions and the blonde got on top with her knees either side of the black girl's head.

She shoved three fingers into herself while frigging her clit with her other hand.

All the while the black girl was frantically rubbing her own swollen love-button.

They continued to pleasure each other with mouths and fingers and then the blonde reached into her bag and pulled out a huge vibrator.

She slipped it into the black girl's snatch and used her lips and tongue on her big clit.

They were so engrossed in giving each other pleasure that at first they didn't notice me.

Lust

But when they realised that they were being watched the two lovebirds froze before untangling themselves, using tissues on themselves and getting dressed.

They thought I'd report them but they offered me a deal: I keep my mouth shut about what I saw and they give me a free lesbo lust show EVERY week.

So every week since, I creep around work to where I know the cleaners will be hard at it – not actually doing any work, just doing each other!

And I wait to hear the tell-tale sounds of girl-on-girl action before spying through the crack of the door of whichever room they are shagging in.

Then I whip out my cock for a cheeky nightshift w*nk while watching the lesbo babes lick and prod each other to completion.

Could we all be in trouble if the firm ever found out? I mean, I'm hardly keeping on top of my security duties and the place doesn't look much cleaner.

LS, South London

Lexi says…

PROBABLY – but as long as they don't, it sounds like you're on to a winner.

Old man treats me to fit young hunks

Dear Lexi,

FOR the last five years my husband has given me one of the best ever birthday presents – but he insists that we film it.

So now we've got five videos showing me getting shagged senseless by a huge-cocked hunk!

It all started just after we married. I was 28, blonde, fit and randy as a rabbit. My hubby is a wealthy lawyer who is 35 years older and admitted his desire for nookie wasn't what it was.

On my 29th birthday, he offered to compensate me for the lack of sex. He took me upstairs and I was stunned when I opened the door and there was this hunk standing there with a ribbon tied around the end of his huge cock standing beside a camera on a tripod.

I took off my knickers quickly as my hubby left us to it and I soon had his throbbing cock in my mouth.

He gripped my hair as he fought the urge to shoot, and with a bit more encouragement he soon let loose and blew his load, which I swallowed down.

Then he flipped me over and lapped at my pussy until I orgasmed wildly.

Then I got him back to attention so he could bang me from behind while I looked into the camera, licking my lips. I felt like a filthy porn star, and got totally carried away as the hunk thrust into me.

It's been a similar story each year since. The thing is, my husband seems to be able to get turned on quite easily by the videos and loves to tug himself off while he watches them.

I still love him, but surely if he can get turned on by watching me getting banged in a video, he can perform in real life too?

CV, Dudley

Lexi says…

IF you're both fine with it, then why not? But maybe if you get him one of those little blue pills he'll join in next birthday!

AGONY QUICKIES

Dear Lexi,

MY fella seems to think going down on me means sucking my fanny into his mouth – as if he's trying to give me a lovebite.

In every other way he's great in the sack, but if he heads between my thighs then I know I'm going to end up bruised.

I've tried saying I want him to just lick me but he takes no notice.

I've also tried faking orgasms really quickly so he moves on, but he wants make me climax again!

SW, East Lancs

Lexi says…

SCREAM every time he goes down on you. Then don't shag him for two weeks, saying you're too sore. He'll soon get it!

Dear Lexi,

ARE all girlfriends as expensive as mine? I'm 25 and she's my first, but what with meals and clothes and trips, I'm blowing £500 a week, and I only earn £450. And in six months I still haven't had a legover.

NT, Lincs

Lexi says…

SHE's taking you for a ride – or not, it seems.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

Justdrop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

EMMA LOUISE

ESSEX beauty Emma Louise would stop any bloke in their tracks – and for traffic warden Tim Atkinson, there's no girl quite like her.

The 27-year-old's sweater-stretching 30G bust was picked out by Tim, 34, from Croydon and he says she's got the best pair he's ever seen.

Tim said: "Emma's rack is top notch and I'd love a new snap of her to add to my collection – I keep all of her pictures!

"Could you dig out a shot of her in all her glory and print it for me please? She's the best looking girl I've ever seen."

ANTONIA

GLAMOUR girl Antonia has been anatomically blessed with a fine pair and Tom Linton begged us for an ogle at 'em.

Tom, 28, from Liverpool, is an IT analyst and his job means he's away from home a lot – but he keeps a stash of 25-year-old Crewe stunna Antonia's 34C topless snaps on hand in case he gets horny.

He said: "Liverpool girls are some of the best but when I'm away it can get lonely so I always stock up on snaps of Antonia.

"I take a stash of her pictures with me when I work away but I could do with a fresh new photo to add to my pile!"

KATIE RYDER

FARMER Geoff Kingsley requested an X-rated photo of blonde babe Katie Ryder – so we've dug out this revealing snap.

Geoff, 52, from Peterborough, wanted to see 26-year-old Katie completely starkers and, although we can't do that, we reckon we've got pretty close.

Preston-born babe Katie donned a white fishnet top for this raunchy shoot and exposed her 30G mammaries and almost flashed her fanny,.

Geoff said: "Midweek Sport will never let me down. I know you'll do me proud with a hot photo of Katie. Thanks!"

Not seen your favourite model for a while? Drop us a note and we'll put her in the paper! Email request@sundaysport.co.uk

SPEARMINT RHINO BABE OF THE WEEK

Georgie NEWMAN

SPEARMINT RHINO GENTLEMEN'S CLUBS

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

GORGEOUS Georgie Newman switches it up in the bedroom... as she likes being controlled but also likes to boss her man about.

The 27-year-old stunna, from Leeds, is on the lookout for a hunky fella who can put her in her place.

Georgie's ideal bloke is someone who isn't afraid of grabbing hold of the reins between the sheets.

She said: "I need someone confident who knows how to put me in my place. Shy guys don't do it for me.

"I like to try new things all the time – in and out of the bedroom!

"It keeps things nice and spicy.

Cheeky

"I do really enjoy roleplay and love playing different characters to turn on my man.

"I like domination too – whether I'm the one in charge or the man."

Saucy Georgie gives a cheeky nod to her kinky side as she's got both her 34D nipples pierced.

Spearmint Rhino has a number of gentleman's clubs around the world which boast the most beautiful dancers.

If you can't make it to a club, you can find Spearmint Rhino girls at boxing and Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) fights around the country, or at the British Superbike rounds.

I REALLY love YOU

Ascot Dettori party's over for crocked Frankie

GUTTED: Dettori

RIDER OUT OF WHOLE MEETING WITH ARM INJURY

FRANKIE Dettori says it will take all year to get over missing Royal Ascot.

The Italian jockey has been ruled out of the whole meeting with an arm injury.

He was thrown from his horse in the paddock at Yarmouth last week and picked up what looked like a fairly minor problem.

But the arm has been troubling him ever since and needs further treatment.

By MIKE FRANCIS

He could be out for as much as three weeks while it heals fully. It's a massive blow for the 46-year-old who is missing a list of top rides.

Dettori said: "I've been trying so hard to get fit but had to accept it wasn't going to happen.

"I've got to have physio and get it properly looked after so won't be at Ascot.

"For me that's soul destroying as it's the most important week of the year.

"I'll be counting the days until next year."

Frankie's former employers Godolphin have a huge chance in today's big race with Jack Hobbs.

Rider William Buick is expecting a huge effort from the five-year-old in the Prince of Wales's Stakes.

Blinkers

He has run well at Ascot before having finished second in the past two Champion Stakes over the course and distance.

Buick said: "Obviously he's dropping back a couple of furlongs, but he showed a lot of pace in Dubai when he wore the blinkers first time. He was very good there, he travelled very well and he's run well in two Champion Stakes there so he'll be comfortable enough at the trip.

"It was always the plan to go to Royal Ascot after he won in Dubai, we had the choice of this race and the Hardwicke over a mile and a half later in the week.

"He will be running on ground quicker than he won on in Dubai, but he has gone well on a fast surface before."

Highland Reel looks the biggest threat with the pair's form closely matched.

Jack Hobbs beat him in Dubai but the Aidan O'Brien hope wasn't at his best there.

The master of Ballydoyle said: "He's an incredibly versatile horse and, while it's not been long since Epsom, we've been happy with what he has done since then.

"He's a typical Galileo — he's very sound mentally and physically, and very consistent.

"He has a lot of natural ability, a lot of natural tactical pace and obviously he stays very well too."

BIG WIN: Buick

Lady's not for losing in sprint

LADY Aurelia hit the bookies where it hurts on day one of Royal Ascot.

The flying American filly scorched away with the King Stand's Stakes in a time just one hundredth of a second shy of the track record.

Frankie Dettori's arm will be a bit sorer after he missed the ride — with crack American rider John Velezquez steering home the 7-2 shot.

She was the biggest ante-post bet of the whole meeting so the bookies were bleating big style.

Velezquez said: "It's unfortunate for Frankie and a bad situation for him, but she was spectacular.

"I gave her a little break in the first half of the race and then when I asked her to run she responded, that doesn't always happen.

"Wes does a great job and he has a great team."

The layers got one back when hot favourite Churchill was beaten in the feature St James's Palace Stakes.

Front

Barney Roy won it at 5/2 with the 1/2 favourite not even in the first three.

There was a winning jolly to cheer in the opening Queen Anne Stakes as Ribchester did the business.

William Buick had to dig deep to get the 11/10 shot home in front.

He said: "I said after the Lockinge he's very versatile. He's an exceptional miler, of course he's got lots of quality but he travels so well and sees it out so well.

"You've got to hand it to the horse, he's an absolute jockey's dream.

"It doesn't get much better than this, it's the biggest week in our sport and to wear the royal blue for Sheikh Mohammed here is absolutely fantastic."

Trainer Richard Fahey was delighted to see his colt break the track record.

He said: "I'm delighted he won, William said he's got huge gears and said that he was never in trouble.

"He gets the trip well and that makes him a good horse.

"He's got to be the best I've trained, especially breaking the track record here today, and that is not being disrespectful to the other horses."

THE WINNING POST

Have the last Laugh

By BEN MORGAN

THE Duke Of Cambridge stakes looks winnable this year, with not many fillies in their best form.

One horse who arrives in red hot form though is LAUGH ALOUD (NAP) who looks an improved performer this year.

She has been mightily impressive in two of her three runs this year and it looks as though the penny has finally dropped with her, especially last time when hosing up in a Group 3.

Her stablemate Persuasive looked to be her main rival, but she has not been declared which leaves the door wide open for the Godolphin filly. She is on the drift and at 5/2 looks the bet of the day.

Wesley Ward has not hidden what regard he holds HAPPY LIKE A FOOL in and given what superb judgement he has I will certainly be backing her in Queen Mary today.

He has stated that she has shown more ability than any other two year old he has trained, which includes Acapulco and Lady Aurelia, so that is some statement.

Looking at her rivals today, there doesn't look to be any standout filly and this could be a good opportunity for Wes Ward to gain his fourth Queen Mary in eight years.

The Royal Hunt Cup looks a tricky puzzle to solve as usual but FASTNET TEMPEST was so impressive last time at Chester, I can't help but back him here.

He was anchored out the back on the Roodee turning for home and favourite backers were cursing their luck until Franny Norton snuck up the inside rail to pick the leaders up in what seemed like two strides.

That performance suggests the big field will certainly play to his strengths and at around 10/1 offers good value.

GYMNASTE can cap off a good day for John Gosden in the Sandringham.

This is a race that Gosden won last year with a similar filly and it looks like a repeat is on the cards.

Josephine Gordon has been booked due to Frankie not being able to do such a low weight, and she is more than capable of doing the steering.

It looks an open renewal of the race but my selection looks a potential group horse in the making and must have a serious chance.

Tiger turns to clinic for his recovery

GOLF

TIGER Woods has gone into a clinic to help overcome his issues with medication.

The 14-times Major champion was arrested at the end of May when found asleep behind the wheel of his car.

He hadn't been drinking and was instead thought to be feeling the effects of medication he was taking to help him recover from a back operation.

The 41-year-old has released a statement saying he is receiving "professional help" and has checked into a clinic.

Woods said: "I'm currently receiving professional help to manage my medications and the ways that I deal with back pain and a sleep disorder.

"I want to thank everyone for the amazing outpouring of support and understanding, especially the fans and players on tour."

Woods' manager Mark Steinberg says the golf legend is trying to get a handle on his issues.

He said: "I'm not at liberty to say where he is, but he is receiving in-patient treatment.

"Tiger has been dealing with so much pain physically and that leads to insomnia and sleep issues. This has been going on for a long time.

"I'm glad he is taking responsibility. Was the night in question when he was arrested a tipping point?

"He's now gone and checked himself into a facility.

"He's been in pain for so long. He's had to handle the pain, which then potentially leads to the lack of sleep because you're in so much pain."

Telly golf fans fed up with slow play

GOLF fans have called for big penalties to stop watching the sport on the box taking up so much time.

Some players in the US Open took almost FIVE HOURS to chip their way around the Erin Hills course last week.

That meant the action finished well after midnight – and went along at the pace of an arthritic snail.

Sky Sports polled viewers and found 40% would like to see a one-shot penalty for slow players — with another 37% looking for a two-shot sanction.

The lowest point of the US Open came when Kevin Na took two minutes to hit a tee shot during the third round.

He stood there gabbing with his caddy for that long — but it didn't cost him a shot or a fine. Golf lawmakers the R&A have vowed to clamp down on slow players.

LATEST FROM NEW ZEALAND

HOT FORM: Jack Nowell

By BILL HARE

WARREN Gatland is buzzing after the Lions let rip against the Chiefs.

The midweek team ran in the biggest win of the tour so far with a 34-6 victory.

Wing Jack Nowell was the star with two tries and Dan Biggar did the business with the boot.

Jared Payne and a penalty try completed a very comfortable victory for the "dirt trackers" in Hamilton.

It's worth saying that the Chiefs were missing several key players who have already linked up with the All Blacks squad. But it was still a good win and sends the Lions into Saturday's first Test in good spirits.

Gatland said: "We're in pretty good shape. We're up against it, but we're getting better each week. We always said we'd get better the longer the tour went on.

"There are still things to work on, but this was a really important result for those players who had been in front in the other two midweek games only to let those leads slip.

"We squeezed them and played some really good rugby.

"That try that Jared Payne scored was pretty impressive and Jack Nowell scored a couple of tries as well, so we're starting to finish a little bit.

"That comes from spending time together.

"We know we have a few things to tidy up, but we took the legs from them and that enabled us to play some good rugby.

"The guys are pretty happy in the changing room after that performance.

"We had a couple of songs, so there's good spirit and this was a great result for this group of players."

Nowell in particular has given himself a chance of figuring against the All Blacks after his well-taken double.

It more than made up for his below-par effort against the Blues last time he started a game.

Excitement

The wing said: "We wanted to come here and be remembered. A couple of midweek games haven't gone our way, discipline has been massive for us.

"We didn't have plans to lose and we wanted to play

JACK'S ALRIGHT FOR THE LIONS!

Nowell double seals convincing win with a bit of excitement and score a few tries and finish the last midweek game going into the series well.

"Back at Exeter they call me the 'Pick and Go King' because I keep scoring the forwards' tries.

"Any try in a Lions shirt means a lot and I'm just thankful I can do it for the boys."

Rory Best is another hoping to have played his way into the first Test line-up.

He was impressed by what he saw from the tourists.

Ireland hooker Best said: "I think we're happy.

?We talked about getting bit of a reaction from this group.

"Although the results have not looked great for us in midweek, we've actually put ourselves in position to win games and win games comfortably.

"We got ourselves in that position here and we drove on. There's a good team spirit throughout this squad. You saw that out there — the boys really worked hard for each other.

"Even at the very end when you're winning comfortably, it's easy to concede a try and give up, but we kept marching forward."

SATISFIED: Gatland

PRESSURE: Warburton

Wazza admits Test spots still up for grabs

WARREN Gatland admits he's got some headaches as he picks his team for Saturday's first Test against the All Blacks.

Even tour captain Sam Warburton isn't sure of his starting spot in Auckland as the Lions improve with every tour game.

The skipper is lacking match fitness after battling back from an ankle injury. It would be a major shock if he missed the Test as every captain since 1930 has led out the Lions in the first game.

Peter O'Mahony's display last weekend has led many pundits to say he should play whether Warburton is fit or not.

And that's just one of several difficult decisions Gatland has to make over the next couple of days.

He said: "Our performances have been good — not everyone agrees with that opinion.

Strong

"We are pretty happy with where we are at the moment with the players in the group.

"The selection meeting will be tough and that's the way we want it.

"Guys put up their hands tonight and I've no doubt there will be some healthy debate."

Gatland says the fact that Warburton's place is not guaranteed only underlines how strong this Lions squad is.

He added: "It's what you want.

"We spoke about the quality of the squad before we left and some players haven't disappointed us."

POWERFUL: Faletau

IMPACT: O'Mahony

Warburton's return would break up strong back row of O'Mahony, Sean O'Brien and Taulupe Faletau.

Gatland admits he'll need plenty of help from the rest of the Lions coaching team to arrive at a final 15.

He added: "The selection meeting will be with all the coaches.

"The way it always works, I can tell you in the past, it's always a consensus of that group.

"It's never one person's call, it's coaches discussing the options then collectively agreeing on selections. That's exactly what will happen tomorrow.

"We'll have some lively debate, and then we will all agree on it. It will be us all contributing.

"Someone like Jack Nowell, it just hadn't happened for him in the first couple of games.

"But he is a player who is prolific in terms of getting his hands on the ball, and he showed that when he scored his tries against Chiefs."

SALAH MOVE BACK ON

ON-OFF: Salah

MOHAMED Salah's on-off move to Liverpool is very much ON again.

The Reds were struggling to agree a fee with Roma for the 25-year-old with the Kopites hoping to get him for short of the £35million that will change hands.

Salah has now arrived at Anfield to sort out the final details of the transfer, which will be Liverpool's second of the summer after young striker Dominic Solanke switched from Chelsea.

By MARK NAYLOR

The Egyptian also has links to Stamford Bridge where he spent two years before signing for Roma in 2016.

He made an instant impact on Italian football and comes back to the Premier League with an enhanced reputation.

He will fit well into the Liverpool squad which looked very thin when Sadio Mane was away at the African Nations Cup.

The Kop's title challenge nosedived during that time and wasn't helped by Phillipe Coutinho also being on the sidelines.

With Daniel Sturridge increasingly injury prone, boss Jurgen Klopp will be happy to have two more attacking options heading into the Champions League — or three if you include Danny Ings who missed last season with injury.

MOVING: Aubameyang

The Reds have long been admirers of Salah and were close to sealing a deal for him before he moved from Basel in Switzerland to Chelsea in 2011.

He is expected to have his medical today and sign a five-year contract.

There could yet be another massive attacking signing by Liverpool this summer.

Market

Borussia Dortmund striker Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang is keen to link up with former boss Klopp in the Premier League.

The 28-year-old looks certain to leaver Germany and was expected to sign for Paris St Germain.

But that move looks to have broken down and he's back on the open market.

Liverpool are not that likely to cough up around £65million for a player that will have little sell-on value because of his age.

A more likely destination could be Manchester City as boss Pep Guardiola is looking for another big-name striker to boost his forward line.

Aubameyang is one of the best strikers in Europe and has scored 85 league goals in three seasons with Dortmund.

Chelsea are also likely to enter the market with Antonio Conte also wanting a bigger squad.

SAINTS PLUMP FOR PELLEGRINO

By PAUL THOMAS

SOUTHAMPTON want to make former Liverpool defender Mauricio Pellegrino their new manager.

The Argentine has emerged as the number one choice to take over from Claude Puel.

Despite steering the Saints into the top 10 and the Capital One Cup final the Frenchman was shown the door because of his boring style.

Pellegrino has beaten off the challenge of former Ajax boss Frank De Boer who seems destined to stay on the managerial dole queue forever.

The 45-year-old has experience of English football from his brief spell at Anfield and was assistant manager to Rafa Benitez at the Kop and Inter Milan.

He has made his name as a boss in his own right thanks to a successful spell with Alaves in Spain's La Liga.

They were widely tipped to be relegated last term but Pellegrino steered them to the top half of the table and the Spanish Cup final.

That erased the memories of a difficult spell in charge of Valencia in 2012 — and he's not the last to have struggled there.

Key Southampton midfielder James Ward Prowse says the Saints players will roll up their sleeves whoever takes over from Puel.

He is captaining the England Under-21 side at the Euros and looks destined to be a regular for the senior side.

Thanks

Ward Prowse said: "It is one of those things and it is a decision from the club that has been made.

"Claude was very good to me, he gave me lots of opportunities and I got into the England squad while playing under him.

"I have got nothing but thanks for him. But my main focus at the minute is the tournament and making sure I am in the best way mentally and physically to help the team. I haven't spoken to him.

"The tournament with England this summer is the main priority, as I said.

"It seems to happen every summe that we get a new manager but that is the way football is sometimes and that won't change.

"It is up to us as players to deal with it.

"The club and the players have shown that we can cope with managers and players going."

NEW SAINT: Pellegrino

COOL CAT: Pearson

Pearson the pick as Black Cats boss

SUNDERLAND believe Nigel Pearson is the man to lead them back into the Premier League.

Owner Ellis Short wants to speak to the former Leicester boss about taking over from David Moyes.

The move comes after Aberdeen gaffer Derek McInnes turned down the chance to take the Black Cats hotseat.

Pearson has been out of work since a troubled spell in charge of Derby County after he left the Foxes.

He has a track record of getting clubs out of the Championship and the fact that he's a free agent means cash-strapped Sunderland wouldn't have to shell out compensation to get him.

Whoever takes over, he will be walking into a turbulent situation.

Jan Kirchhoff is the latest player to head for the exit.

The 26-year-old is out of contract at the end of this month and has at least two offers from Premier League clubs on the table.

The German had a sticky start to life in England but became a vital part of Sam Allardyce's side that beat the drop.

Deals

He was hit by injuries last season as the Black Cats finished rock bottom.

And he became a victim of David Moyes' policy of only picking players that had played for him before.

He could share a cab with Joleon Lescott and Steven Pienaar who are two more players coming to the end of their deals and on their way.

The latter is expected to return to his native South Africa at this late stage in his career.

More important players — Seb Larsson and John O'Shea — have been offered new contracts but are likely to be offered a chance to stay in the top flight.

The lack of a manager isn't helping with Larsson in particular a key man for the squad.

Brighton are understood to have made the 32-year-old an offer to join them for their first season in the Premier League.

Stoke could be interested in O'Shea as boss Mark Hughes is looking for experienced cover for his back four.

He would be a lot cheaper than John Terry who is also being linked with the Potters.

England too hot for weak Proteas

TOP TEAM: England skipper Morgan

SOUTH AFRICA SET TO STRUGGLE

PORTUGAL are Evens at BetVictor to beat hosts Russia (31/10) in the Confederations Cup later today (ITV 4 4pm) with the draw 12/5.

Germany are the 2/1 market leaders to win the eight-team competition with Chile 5/2 and Portugal 11/4 despite only getting a 2-2 draw with Mexico in their opening tie.

Cristiano Ronaldo is 11/4 to open the scoring and a shade of odds on at 20/23 to find the back of the Russian net at some time during the 90 minutes.

Weakened

Ronaldo is 5/2 (from 3s) to be playing at Old Trafford after confirmation that he wants to leave the Bernabeu this summer but United are reported to be baulking at his reported £330k pw wages.

England play South Africa in the first T20 international at the Rose Bowl Southampton and will have to do without Faf Du Plessis who has returned home for the birth of his first child.

Skipper AB de Villiers must do without Hashim Amla, Quinton de Kock, JP Duminy as well as du Plessis and I think the hosts will have far too much power for the weakened tourists.

England are 31/40 at BetVictor with South Africa Evens and Eoin Morgan's side are taken to land the opener although they have named five uncapped players in their 16-man squad including Lancashire's exciting batsman Liam Livingstone.

★ Day two of Royal Ascot and the Hunt Cup is one of my favourite betting races of the year.

El Vip and Banksea have been well supported in recent days but I am a big admirer of Fastnet Tempest (5.00) who had to win at Chester last time in order to get into the race.

The selection was slowly away on the Roodeye and had to come around the whole field, in the hands of Franny Norton, before getting up in the shadows of the post.

A 5lbs rise is fair in the circumstances and he would not have got into the race had he not won.

At 10/1 with BetVictor (each way five places), he is the each way recommendation.

Six of the last seven winners of the race have been a double-figure price and at 22/1 I will also be throwing a few bob on Godolphin's Blair House (22/1 with BetVictor).

Hat-trick

The four-year-old is making a belated season reappearance this afternoon but has run very well first time out in the past and, after only six career starts, he is open to significant improvement.

In the Queen Mary, I know that Wesley Ward is very sweet on the chances of Happy Like A Fool (3.05) and it is perhaps significant that Aidan O'Brien does not have a runner in the race thus enabling Ryan Moore to take the ride. Coolmore are reported to have bought into the filly and the gallop reports from Newmarket, where she has been housed in recent weeks, are very favourable.

The filly won by 4L on debut at Keeneland on dirt and her trainer is looking for a hat-trick in the race following the successes of Lady Aurelia twelve months ago and Acapulco in 2015. The filly is 6/4 at BetVictor and will be hard to beat.

It would be fair to say Frankie did not give French-raider Qemah (3.40) the best of rides at Lingfield over 7f last time but I expect to see a different filly this afternoon back up in trip.

The selection won the Group 1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville last season and regular pilot Gregory Benoist is back in the saddle.

The selection is 3/1 with BetVictor and she would be a confident selection for Jean-Claude Rouget.

Swans warn Tottenham off Siggy transfer

TOTTENHAM have been told by Swansea they have NO CHANCE of buying Gylfi Sigurdsson this summer.

Spurs want to pay £25million for the Iceland playmaker who they sold to the Welsh lads themselves in 2014.

Mauricio Pochettino has set his sights on signing either Sigurdsson or Everton's Ross Barkley this summer as he tries to add more craft to his midfield.

Swansea are also fighting to keep hold of Spanish striker Fernando Llorente who found his best form to help keep them up last term.

He almost moved to Chelsea in January and the Bridge Boys would be happy to add him to their squad.

But Swansea chairman Huw Jenkins is desperate to keep hold of his two main assets.

He said: "We've not had any firm bids and if we ever get any firm bids then we will deal with them in the proper way.

Power

"Our aim is to try and keep Gylfi and Fernando, keep our better players and to make sure we can add to Paul Clement' squad.

"It's hard to suggest what sort of value Gylfi has in today's market, but to us he is priceless and we've got to make sure we do everything in our power to make sure he stays with us."

Pochettino has called Sigurdsson "the perfect player for us" and is fuming that he left the Lane just a couple of weeks after he took over.

Spurs have yet to dip a toe into the water this summer but are closing in on a deal for goalkeeper Paul Lopez.

WANTED: Llorente

He was on loan at the Lane last summer and made a big impression on Mo Po.

While he has yet to make a first-team appearance for Spurs, the manager believes the 22-year-old has a bright future.

Espanyol have told Tottenham to get a move on if they want to get the deal done.

Chief executive Ramon Robert said: "There is an option to buy until June 30 and if Tottenham do not pay it, he will be an Espanyol player.

"We will all be very happy to have him back."

GIZZA JOB: Dyche fancies bossing Palace

Dyche keen to soar off with Eagles hotseat

SEAN Dyche says he wants to talk about the vacant Crystal Palace job — if only the Eagles would speak to him.

The Burnley manager has not yet been interviewed for the Selhurst Park hotseat, which is vacant after Sam Allardyce's shock walk out at the end of last term.

Palace have spoken to Mauricio Pellegrino — who looks set for Southampton — and Frank De Boer but missed out on Claudio Ranieri who has gone to Nantes in France.

Dyche has built a strong reputation at Burnley and the Clarets never even flirted with relegation last season.

WALKED OUT: Allardyce

He has spent almost five years at Turf Moor and is open to moving on.

Dyche would also come pretty cheap with a £1million compensation clause in his contract, which is a lot lower than most bosses have.

It's been a month since Big Sam walked out and Palace risk missing out on key players in the summer transfer window.

Farce

Dyche spent much of his playing career in the south of England and his family live closer to London than Lancashire.

He would jump at the chance of taking over at Palace — and is hoping to speak to the Eagles in the next few days.

The hunt for a new manager at Selhurst Park is threatening to turn into something of a farce.

Palace legend Kenny Sansom has even offered to come in and give the Eagles board a hand.

The former England full-back is puzzled about the lack of progress and is willing to work in an advisory role.

He said: "I'm surprised Palace haven't appointed a new manager yet. I was a bit taken aback that Big Sam left, but I respect his reasons.

"Personally I'd love to be involved and pass on my knowledge to the players. I know I can help."

It's hard to say what will happen about transfers at the club this summer.

Palace were thought to be in the running to sign Kelechi Iheanacho from Manchester City on a season-long loan.

The young striker has an excellent goals ratio but is unlikely to get much game time this season with Gabriel Jesus, Sergio Aguero and possibly even Alexis Sanchez ahead of him.

But with other Premier League clubs sniffing around — including Everton — he could well have moved on before the Eagles have a new man in charge.

Venezuela forward Jan Hurtado is also on Palace's radar after impressing in the Under-20 World Cup won by England.

MO IS R CHO ONE

JOSE Mourinho wants Alvaro Morata and NOT Cristiano Ronaldo.

By JOHN ANTHONY

The Manchester United boss has set his sights on a Real Madrid forward — but it isn't his fellow Portugeezer.

Bid

Morata is the player Mourinho has targeted to boost his attack and the deal was rumoured to be done.

But that's not the news coming out of Madrid where Real president Florentino Perez who says United have not lodged a bid for the striker.

That goes against what Morata's agent has been reporting.

Lopez said: "We have not received any offers for Cristiano or Morata as some media have stated.

"Our priority is to keep our current core of players, and that is why we are not going to make any movements."

Zinedine Zidane is still hopeful of keeping Morata, especially with Ronaldo saying he wants to leave the club.

CR7 is caught up in a tax trial and is upset that the Spanish authorities have turned up the heat on him.

Offer

Perez is adamant that Madrid won't be losing any players that they don't want to move on.

He added: "We have not received any offers and what we think is that Ronaldo is a Real Madrid player and will continue to be just as the rest.

"In recent days, no one has made an offer for any of our players and we haven't made any offers."

In any case, Mourinho is not keen on spending a massive amount of money on bringing Ronaldo back to Old Trafford.

It's no secret that the Special One and CR7 are not on the closest terms and had plenty of fall outs when they were together at the Berna-

United want striker NOT Ron return

CHOICES, CHOICES: Ronaldo and Morata

beu before Mourinho walked out.

Although he has a ridiculoud release clause of one billion euros, it looks as though the transfer fee would be around £150million for a player who is now 32.

Strike

There's no doubt that United would be able to afford Ronaldo and could match his wage demands of £300,000 per week — after tax.

Paris St Germain are thought to have put a £150m bid on the table and Real could have little choice but to accept it or face Ronaldo going on strike.

One way United could make a deal for Ronaldo and Morata pay would be to include David De Gea in the switch.

While Mourinho realises his keeper is one of the best in Europe, he knows he has a more than capable understudy in Sergio Romero waiting in the wings.

The Argentina No1 impressed in United's Europa League campaign and is too good to be sitting on the bench for another season.

The Reds boss would be happy to go with him as his main keeper and offload De Gea to Madrid.

Problem

He could be an effective swap deal for Morata, meaning United could yet use their cash on Ronaldo.

But the problem is that Madrid have gone off De Gea.

That's a big turnaround from two summers ago when they had the deal done but for a delay in completing the paperwork that was blamed on a dodgy fax machine.

It looked nailed on all last season that De Gea would be heading to the Spanish capital this summer.

Mourinho even stopped putting him on the bench at the very end of last season — pretty much signalling that his days at Old Trafford were numbered.

But Keylor Navas dramatically improved his form over the past few months and Zidane is happy to keep him as his No1.

Perez has been spilling the beans on any potential deal involving the keepers — or lack of it.

It looks as though United may still have De Gea between the sticks come the big kick-off.

He said: "We haven't spoken to De Gea about a transfer. Two years ago we had an issue and then the appropriate circumstances didn't arise.

"The players are very fond of Keylor and also the coach."

NEW DEAL: Conte

Conte signs for four years at Bridge

ANTONIO Conte has ended speculation about his future by signing a new contract with Chelsea.

The Italian led the Blues to the title last season but there were rumours of disquiet behind the scenes.

He's ended talk of him walking out by penning a four-year deal on a staggering £9.5million a season.

It makes the 47-year-old one of the best paid coaches in any sport.

Now Conte is focusing on transfers and wants to bring in SIX new players this summer.

That was thought to be the source of tension with owner Roman Abramovich who hadn't told him how much he could spend in the transfer market.

The unrest was boosted when Conte reportedly told Diego Costa he didn't want him any more — upsetting the Russian owner.

Now things are patched up they can focus on both ends of the pitch.

Beefing

A new effort will now be made to get Romelu Lukaku from Everton — but the Blues will still not cough up the £100m being demanded by the Toffees.

Then focus shifts to the Chelsea defence that Conte believes needs beefing up before taking on the Champions League.

The Blues have already put £52m on the table for Juventus full-back Alex Sandro and are in talks with Monaco about holding midfielder Tiemoue Bakayoko.

And Conte is desperate for one — or maybe even two — high-class central defenders.

He is not sold on the talents of Kurt Zouma and has lost the back-up of John Terry on the bench.

Conte wants to head back to Juventus and finally get his hands on Leonardo Bonucci.

He has been chasing him ever since leaving Turin for the Bridge.

The Italians are desperate to keep hold of their talisman and skipper but Chelsea will pay almost any price to get the deal done.

Even if that goes through, Conte would love to have Virgil Van Dijk alongside Bonucci and Gary Cahill in his back three.

He will match any other offer for the Southampton stopper.
